

Value Education for S.5- Integrity

By Mr. Yu & Ms. Gurwinder

Guidance Team

WHAT ARE VALUES

What are values?

- They exist in our minds and guide what we DO and SAY.
- They show what is important to us and what is not.
- They define our personality
- Some values are in-built in us, esp those prescribed by our cultures and religions.
- Some values we learn, from our families, friends and school.

E.g.,

1. Students cheating in school exams. (Responsibility, Integrity)
2. Not giving your seat to a disabled or needy person. (Caring for others)
3. Never saying thank you to people around you. (gratitude)
4. Giving up easily because of minor setbacks (perseverance)
5. Always being rude to people around you (Respect)

Value Education!

Integrity

This value encompasses a lot of other values such as honesty and responsibility because it essentially means “doing the right thing, even when no one is watching”.

Examples of actions showing a lack of integrity

Cheating
during exams

Theft

Cheating on your partner

Lying

Causing harm to others

Not offering help
without rewards
or recognition

Failing to keep your word / promises

Spitting or throwing rubbish
on the ground

Backbiting/speaking ill of others

Examples from our society- Taxi Scam (2015)

- A taxi driver charged a Swiss tourist HKD8000 for a trip from the airport to a hotel in Hung Hom
- The average price for the route should be HKD250-300.
- The incident happened around 2 am and there was no one around. The taxi driver made use of the situation.

Examples from our society- Child pornography & molestation (2018 & 2019)

- × James Lung, leader of ethnic minority group, Southern Democratic Alliance
- × Indecently assaulted children under 16
- × Charged with possessing child pornography

Examples from our society- Cheating scandal (2019)

- Husband of a beloved Cantopop singer, Sammi Cheng
- Was found cheating on his wife

1. Our focus: Bribery

A New Direction

The examples shown vary in terms of severity but they all have a negative impact on the society we will live.

It is up to the individual to preserve their integrity and always do the right thing.
